Este es mi México

CHILDREN'S DRAWING CONTEST 2010

The purpose of the contest is to encourage children from all over the world (from any nationality) to express through a drawing the "Mexico's contributions to the World": cocoa, tomato, vanilla, poinsettia, "guajolote" turkey, as well as mariachi and "danzon" music, tacos, mole and places such as Chichen Itza, the Monarch Butterfly Reserve and the Sanctuary for Gray Whales at Vizcaino, among others. This is just a sample of what Mexico has to offer.

The artwork will be sent to Mexico to participate with drawings from all over the world. A jury of specialists in arts will select 15 winners.

CONTEST GUIDELINES:

- The contest is open for children between the ages of 7 and 11 years old
- Draw on a square cardboard or paper (12"x12") using brushes, pencils, acrylics, water paints, crayons, or any other drawing technique
- Show in your drawing the contributions from Mexico to the world
- Sign and date your drawing. It's very important to fill out the attached registration form. Don't forget that all the information is important; you could be disqualified if you leave something out
- Copied or traced drawings will not be taken into consideration. Drawings left unfinished with missing information, exceeding or smaller than indicated measurements (12"x12") will be disqualified
- Winners may choose one of the following prizes: a laptop, a digital camera, or a professional drawing kit with a set of books. The prize will not exceed the equivalent of $1,500 US dollars
- All participants will receive a diploma and, even if your drawing is not one of the winners, it may be selected to be part of an exhibit which will travel around the world or to be one of the images chosen to illustrate the 2011 "Este es mi México" calendar, which will be distributed by the Consulate of Mexico
- Send your drawing directly to the Consulate of Mexico in Salt Lake City, before the deadline: September 15th, 2010.

Remember to fill out, cut and attach the PARTICIPANT REGISTRATION FORM! at the back of your drawing
